

HON. JAMES BRIGHAM WILSON, whose valued service in the Utah Legislature has made his name known state-wide, is a resident of Midway, and in Wasatch County he has enjoyed many honors of dignified citizenship, substantial business positions and service to his church.

Mr. Wilson was born at Carson City, Nevada, August 22, 1856. The presence of his parents in Nevada at the time was owing to the fact that his father had been sent from Salt Lake to Carson Valley as one of the Mormon colonists. His parents were James T. and Isabelle (Ross) Wilson, his father a native of Ireland and his mother of Scotland. His father came to this country in 1852 and his mother in 1854. Both parents made the journey across the plains to Salt Lake with ox teams. His father from 1885 until his death in 1905 had his home at Midway.

James Brigham Wilson attended school at Salt Lake City, including the University of Utah, for three years taught school, and since 1884 his chief business interest has been farming and stock raising in Wasatch County. He has been one of the leading sheep men of his district.

Mr. Wilson has served as high counselor in the Church of the Latter Day Saints and for many years as a member of the bishopric. In 1925 he went on a brief mission to the northwest states and in 1927 was again engaged in mission work, in Montana.

He has always been a staunch Republican, and his activity in politics has been in many ways beneficial to his local constituency. He was first elected to the Legislature from Wasatch County in 1902, serving two terms, and in 1908 was elected for a four-year term in the State Senate. In 1927 he again went to the Legislature and has served continuously since that date.

Mr. Wilson married in 1881 Miss Margaret Powell. She was born in South Wales, in 1858, and died in 1913. To this union were born six children, as follows: J. Brigham, who had charge of the stock interests under the name of J. B. Wilson & Sons, married in 1910 Lotta Hoffacre; Margaret E., wife of William G. Young; David John, who graduated in law from the University of California, married in 1916 Mary Jacobs, of Ogden; Isabel E., who married in 1916 Prof. Wayne B. Hales; Reese Arthur, who married in 1922 Eva Huber; and Edith E., who was married in 1924 to Dr. Grant Y. Anderson. In 1915 Mr. Wilson married Miss Hannah Lundin, who was born in Sweden, in 1878, and came to America in 1885. Mr. Wilson is very proud of his thirty-three living grandchildren.
